Opening Prayer

Ps 33:1 Sing joyfully to the Lord, you righteous; it is fitting for the upright to praise Him.

O God, our Saviour, we have gathered here today, drawn from our many different backgrounds to the Cross of Jesus and the empty tomb, acknowledging our common beginnings as sinners. We were lost and without hope because of the Fall, blighted by the curse which fell on Adam and Eve, unable to save ourselves from Your righteous justice, as that Curse spread to all of this Creation.

But we are here because You have declared us righteous and upright, and we know the sure hope for our future because Jesus died to take our place, and rose again to give us New Life.

Therefore we can come into Your holy, sinless presence to bring You praise, to honour Jesus and to submit ourselves to the teachings of Your Word, and the guidance of the Holy Spirit.

We pray that all we do and say, both here and wherever we go out in the world, would be acceptable in Your sight, for You are our Lord and our God, forever and ever,
Amen!
