Call to Worship (Psalm 18:31-32) & Opening prayer

[31] For who is God, but the Lord? And who is a rock, except our God?—

[32] the God who equipped me with strength and made my way blameless.

O Lord our God, we have gathered today to worship You, to study Your Word and to grow in sanctification by the work of the Holy Spirit.

We acknowledge that only You are God, only You have saved us, and only You have equipped us to work as servants of the Kingdom of Heaven, while we live on this Earth.

We pray that our service here today would be to Your honour and glory alone, and that everything we do and say would be consistent with Your will for us, so that we neither run ahead of Your plans, nor fall behind because of temptations sent by the evil one.

We thank You that Jesus has defeated that enemy, even though the world refuses to see the Victory of the empty tomb.

This we pray, not in our own strength, but in His Powerful Name, Amen.
