Call to Worship (Psalm 48:1-2) / Opening prayer

[1]Great is the Lord and greatly to be praised in the city of our God!

His holy mountain, [2] beautiful in elevation, is the joy of all the earth,
Mount Zion, in the far north, the city of the great King.

Heavenly Father, we thank You that we are here this morning to worship the Great King, Who is High and lifted up!

We also thank You that The Great King is not only distant and unapproachable on Mount Zion but close to us – Immanuel: God WITH us.

We look back to Jesus first coming at this season we call Christmas, but also look forward with a sure hope for His second coming when every eye shall see Him as He is – King of kings and Lord of Lords.

We pray that our gathering here will be to Your honour and glory, that all we do and say would be directed to lifting up the Lord Jesus, and that You would be pleased with our worship, our fellowship and our reading and hearing of Your Word.

We thank You for Jordan bringing Your Word to us today, we thank You for his faithful preparation and we pray that the Holy Spirit would enable us to take in the Word of Truth, so that it becomes a part of our daily lives to be faithful witnesses to this world which needs to know its Saviour and Lord.

In Jesus Holy Name we pray, Amen.

[And Can It Be]
