Call to Worship (2 Corinthians 5:21) & Opening prayer

For our sake he made him to be sin who knew no sin, so that in him we might become the righteousness of God.

Let us pray.

Heavenly Father, we gather today to worship because of Your great mercy and unfathomable love for us. In Your will and purpose, we see that Jesus was able and willing to take the punishment that was due to us.

Although He was sinless and Perfect, He took upon Himself our sin, and instead gave us His righteousness, so that we could be reconciled to You. What the first Adam lost, Jesus the last and greater Adam won back, so that we could return to fellowship with You as originally intended for Adam and Eve.

For us who live in a fallen world, this is a wonder of wonders, and a miracle almost impossible to imagine. We pray that today as we gather, we may be led by the Holy Spirit to offer up praises worthy of the Creator of the Universe and Redeemer of our souls.

In Jesus Name we ask, Amen.
