Opening Prayer (Joshua 1:7-9)

7 “Be strong and very courageous. Be careful to obey all the law my servant Moses gave you; do not turn from it to the right or to the left, that you may be successful wherever you go.

8 Keep this Book of the Law always on your lips; meditate on it day and night, so that you may be careful to do everything written in it. Then you will be prosperous and successful.

9 Have I not commanded you? Be strong and courageous. Do not be afraid; do not be discouraged, for the Lord your God will be with you wherever you go.”

Heavenly Father, we thank You that You have promised to be with us, as You promised Joshua. We thank You that Jesus, when He walked this earth, also promised to never leave us or forsake us but to send the Holy Spirit to be with us as Comforter and Guide into all truth.

We thank You for preserving your Word through the generations, so that we have a sure foundation for our faith, and we too may meditate upon it day and night, so that we may obey You fully in all we do.

We see about us a world full of giants who oppose You and Your people. So we gather today to hear Your Word read and preached, to sing Your praises, to encourage one another, so that we can face the days ahead trusting in You, strong and courageous, because You are with us wherever we go.

In Jesus Mighty Name we pray, Amen.
