Opening Prayer (Isaiah 12)

In that day you will say: “I will praise you, Lord.

Although you were angry with me, your anger has turned away and you have comforted me.

2 Surely God is my salvation; I will trust and not be afraid.

The Lord, the Lord himself, is my strength and my defense;

He has become my salvation.”

3 With joy you will draw water from the wells of salvation.

4 In that day you will say: “Give praise to the Lord, proclaim his name;

make known among the nations what he has done, and proclaim that his name is exalted.

5 Sing to the Lord, for he has done glorious things; let this be known to all the world.

6 Shout aloud and sing for joy, people of Zion, for great is the Holy One of Israel among you.”

Lord God in heaven, we are here today enacting these words of Isaiah’s prophecy. We know Your righteous anger at our sin, yet we also know you have turned your anger away because Jesus has taken the punishment intended for us. Your justice is satisfied by His sacrifice on the cross, and we are comforted.

He has become our salvation, and our heartfelt response is to sing Your praises and exalt you among the nations.

Holy Spirit be with us we pray, as we sing with united voices of the great salvation He has made for us.

In His Mighty Name we pray, Amen.

[King of Kings]
