Opening Prayer (Psalm 84:4)

Blessed are those who dwell in your house, ever singing your praise!

Father God in heaven, we are here today at Your call to praise You and to remind ourselves that we dwell in Your house forever, because You are faithful.

We confess that we are not perfect as our heavenly Father is perfect. So we thank You that You sent Jesus to take our place, to accept the punishment for our sins and in exchange to bestow on us the free gift of salvation.

We thank You that He is now in heaven at Your side, enthroned on the praises of His people, and interceding for us so that we are shielded from Your righteous anger at sin.

We commit this time together to You so that Jesus may be lifted up, and that we can sing with united voices of the great salvation He has made for us. We remind ourselves of all the reasons we have for praising You in the words of our first song.

In His Mighty Name we pray, Amen.
