

Prayers for our World and the Church

14th June 2026

Psalm 80:17-19

[17] ... let your hand be on the man of your right hand, the son of man whom you have made strong for yourself!

[18] Then we shall not turn back from you; give us life, and we will call upon your name!

[19] Restore us, O Lord God of hosts! Let your face shine, that we may be saved!

As we come to God in prayer, let us pray together...

O Lord, we thank You that You have made the Son of Man, Jesus, strong to save, strong to restore.

Confession

We know that we had turned back from You, that our sins had hidden You from us. We needed Your face to shine upon us.

Thanks to God

We thank You for Jesus' sacrifice on our behalf. We now live the redeemed life of the Eternal Son of God, the spotless Lamb, Who rose to bestow on us His righteousness by grace, so that we call upon Your Name.

We thank You for sending the Holy Spirit, Giver of Life, to be with us daily, to continue the task of sanctifying us, so that we grow to be more like Jesus day by day.

The Wide World... and the Wider Church

We thank You for Your church, the Bride of Christ, the guardian of the Truths of Your Word, and for those saints who have gone before us, but who have left us Your written Word as a reliable and faithful witness to the Risen Word. We thank You for those who loved us and prayed for us to be drawn to the Cross, and for those in present times who have continued to care for us, both in close fellowship, and in distant prayer.

We pray for this world and for the many people who do not know the Truth, and yet seek for it in many ways. We recognise that the enemy below works to isolate them from Your Truth and grace, so we pray that we have the courage to speak, whether boldly or quietly, of the Cross and the Resurrection, of the Lord Jesus Who gave His life for them to be saved.

Ashburton

We pray for our work here at Ashburton, and we continue in prayer for those in need of Your healing and restoration – for Jan, Diane, for Levi and others affected by illness or injury.

We pray for Mook and Talia and the family as we prepare to farewell them next week. We pray for Your guidance as they seek new places to serve You and Your church. Grant them Your wisdom, as they work to do Your will, wherever You place them.

We pray for our Session, Board and Selection Committee as we adjust to this change, and for the presbytery which meets next week, as they continue the search for a new man to bring Your Word and sacraments and to lead the work here.

We thank You for Douglas as he preaches Your Word today. We thank You for his faithful, effective preaching which enables us to grow in grace. Help us to be diligent, like the Berean believers, who searched the Scriptures to follow Paul's preaching in their time.

In His Precious Name we pray, Amen.
