Prayers for our World and the Church
8th November 2026

Psalm 130:1-5

Out of the depths I have cried to You, O Lord. Lord, hear my voice! Let Your ears be attentive to the voice of my supplications. If You, Lord, should mark iniquities, O Lord, who could stand? But there is forgiveness with You, That You may be feared. I wait for the Lord, my soul does wait, and in His word do I hope.

Let us pray…

Thanks to God

O Lord, we thank You that You listen when we cry out to You.

We know that in ourselves, we could not come into Your Presence to be heard, for we are sinners and in trouble in this world. We thank You that because Jesus went to the Cross for us, You no longer mark our iniquities, but instead have granted us Your forgiveness. We thank You that Jesus is our Advocate and High Priest, pleading on our behalf before the Throne of Grace.

We thank You for sending the Holy Spirit, Third Person of the Trinity, to be with us daily, the One Who is our assurance of the eternal hope we have of living in Your Presence and worshipping You forever.

The Wide World... and the Wider Church

We pray for this world where so many trust in human wisdom, and place their hope in governments to restore safety and righteousness. In this election season, we pray for safety for candidates and all the election workers, for civil debate over competing policies, and especially for policies that protect life and unite our communities, instead of dividing.

We pray that the elected members will again seek Your Word for guidance and recall the wisdom of Proverbs when they read the inscription in the tiles as they enter the building.

We pray also that Your church would make a stand for Godliness in public life and discourse, so that Your Word is honoured, that You are feared and reverenced, and that we Your people would exercise our civic responsibility wisely when we cast our votes. May we recognise that seeking good and wise government is a part of loving our neighbours within our communities.

Ashburton

We pray for our work here at Ashburton, as we seek to pray for one another, hear Your Word proclaimed today, so that we may all share in the task of building each other up, encouraging one another in love and good deeds, in caring for each other and ministering to each others needs as You lead us by Your Holy Spirit.

We continue in prayer for those in need of Your healing hand. We thank You for Levi‘s progress, and we pray for those with particular needs.

We thank You for Your Word, and for Paul as he preaches today. We pray that we would truly wait upon You as he opens Your Word to us.

In Jesus Precious Name we pray, Amen.
