

Prayers for our World and the Church

12th July 2026

Psalm 37:39-40 (of David)

39 The salvation of the righteous comes from the Lord; he is their stronghold in time of trouble.

40 The Lord helps them and delivers them; he delivers them from the wicked and saves them, because they take refuge in him.

Let us join together in prayer...

Thanks to God

O Lord, we thank You that You are our stronghold in times of trouble, which is always. For we acknowledge that there are always times of trouble for Your people, whether close by or far away, and in this fallen world there are times of trouble for all people.

We thank You that true salvation comes only from You, and real deliverance is by Your grace and mercy alone. We thank You that we have been delivered from the hand of the wicked, but also from the righteous judgement of Your holy law, which exposes our sin, so that we are without excuse.

But we thank You for Jesus, who nailed the charges against us to the Cross, and gave us His righteousness, so that we live new lives in the Spirit, and not in our old nature. We confess that we are still imperfect but that we are being sanctified progressively, growing more like Jesus daily.

The Wide World... and the Wider Church

We pray for this world where so many are perplexed by troubles, a world which has lost hope, and sees only doom and gloom ahead. We know that we ourselves are also inclined to worry about the things we see going on. But we remember Jesus warning that we would have trouble in this world, and take courage from His assurance that He has overcome the world. We pray for boldness to show the sure hope that we have in Him because of the Resurrection.

We pray for the persecuted church, thankful that we are not beset as many believers are, not in a proud way, but humbly asking how we may uphold our brothers and sisters in places hostile to the Christian faith.

Ashburton

We pray for our work here at Ashburton, thanking You for the opportunity to apply for an exiting student to possibly minister here. We thank You for the unity we expressed in last week's congregational meeting, as we now await the results of the work of the Exit Students Committee, trusting in Your Providence. We pray that You would grant them great wisdom as they seek to place students for the greatest benefit to congregations within the PCV.

We continue in prayer for those in need of Your healing hand – for John McKenzie, Diane and others affected by illness or injury. Also, we pray safety for those travelling, for blessings as they meet with family and friends, and for their safe return.

We thank You for Your Word, and for Yuvi as he preaches today. We pray that we would grow in grace, and become more effective witnesses to the sure hope of Your calling in our lives.

In His Precious Name we pray, Amen.
