

Prayers for our World and the Church

6th September 2026

Psalm 66:20

Blessed be God, Who has not turned away my prayer, nor His lovingkindness from me.

Let us pray...

Thanks to God

O Lord, we thank You that Your throne is a throne of grace and mercy for us, and that You do not turn away our prayers.

We thank You that You rule in righteousness, for You are also a God of justice to ensure that sin is punished and right will prevail. We thank You for sending Jesus to save us, for we know that we could never save ourselves.

We thank You that we will shortly take part in the Lord's Supper, commemorating the Cross and Resurrection, where justice and mercy came together, and what was thought by satan to be his victory became Jesus' victory instead.

We thank You that we have been rescued from death, transferred into the kingdom of heaven, and granted eternal life, free from the guilt and the penalty that our sins deserved. We thank You that we are now willing servants of the Lord of Glory, rather than slaves of the evil one.

The Wide World... and the Wider Church

We pray for the Church, the worldwide Body of Christ, beset by opposition from the visible enemies outside as well as division within. We pray for Your grace as we stand for the truth as set forth in Your Word, against the false teachings which have been spread in recent years, but which have always been present even from New Testament times.

We pray for the many in this world without anchors because enemies try to undermine even the common sense reality of who we are as Your creatures, in a world which You created to work consistently and predictably. We thank You for the common grace to see Your hand in creation, so that we all might recognise and give You the glory due to Your Name.

Ashburton

We pray for our work here at Ashburton, as we continue to serve You, love our brothers and sisters and seek to share the good news of Jesus with the people we meet. We thank You for the fellowship of the Holy Spirit, as we minister to one another, and we pray for those who are away traveling, that You would grant them safe travel and rich fellowship wherever they go.

We pray for the camp and for Brett Cummins as he prepares to open up Your word to us in a different setting. We pray for the Selection Committee which meets today to resume the task of finding the man of Your choosing to be our servant leader here.

We continue in prayer for those in need of Your healing hand – for Joan, Diane, Gaye and John, Levi and others affected by illness or injury. We pray for both medical and miraculous healing, according to Your will.

We thank You Douglas as he brings Your Word to us today. We are so blessed to receive the ministry of such wise and mature saints, and we pray for diligence in applying it to our daily sanctification under the guidance of Your Holy Spirit. In Jesus Name we pray, Amen.
