

Prayers for our World and the Church

26th July 2026

Psalms 65:1-2

[1] There will be silence before You, and praise in Zion, O God, and to You the vow will be performed.

[2] O You who hear prayer, to You all men come.

Let us pray...

Thanks to God

O Lord, we thank You that You hear our prayers, and our praises. We thank You that we can praise You in silent awe at Your perfect Holiness, as well as in joyful songs celebrating Your mighty deeds.

We know that our sin cannot remain in the presence of Your holiness, but we thank You that Jesus has shielded us from Your righteous judgement upon our sin, and we have been forgiven by Your grace and mercy alone.

We thank You for the Presence of the Holy Spirit, Who is with us daily, to come alongside and enable us to resist temptation, to open our minds to Your Word, and to grant us wisdom as we live in this fallen world.

The Wide World... and the Wider Church

We pray for a world where so many have lost all hope, or have been blinded by the enemy of our souls. We pray that people would come to see that Your church lives in the sure hope of eternal life, and that they too may come in faith to receive the free gift of life, instead of the dreaded judgement upon a life in rebellion against You.

We give thanks for Your church, the guardian and pillar of Truth, the salt which savours all of life, the light on the hill, the beacon which draws men to Jesus, the true Light of the world. We pray for those who go out as missionaries, who carry Your light to the many in darkness, who labour to show the Light of Life, seeking to dispel the darkness that overwhelms this world.

Ashburton

We pray that we here at Ashburton can also labour with our various talents and abilities in the work of the gospel. Whether we take the Word to others ourselves, or support those who do, we pray that we would always keep in mind Your purposes, so that everything we do advances the Kingdom, bringing Good News to people who need to know that life is not all bad news.

We continue in prayer for those in need of Your healing reastoring hand – for Jan, Diane and others affected by illness or injury. Prompt us to pray daily and to encourage each other towards maturity in Christ so that we would always grow to be more like Him in character and obedience.

We thank You for Your Word, and for Alan as he preaches today. We pray that what we hear will be the spiritual food our souls need to grow in grace. Help us take it in and allow it to do its nourishing work, displacing the constant barrage we see and hear around us.

In Jesus Precious Name we pray, Amen.
