Call to Worship (Psalm 48:9-11) & Opening prayer

[9] We have thought on Your lovingkindness, O God, In the midst of Your temple.

[10] As is Your name, O God, So is Your praise to the ends of the earth; Your right hand is full of righteousness.

[11] Let Mount Zion be glad, Let the daughters of Judah rejoice because of Your judgments.

Let us pray...

Our Father in Heaven, we thank You that You are with us today in this place, where we have gathered to think on Your lovingkindness, to praise Your Name to the ends of the earth.

We honour Your Name and Your righteous judgements, for we know in our hearts that You are Perfectly Just and also full of mercy.

You declared judgement on sin but provided us with a way of escape, through Jesus' death and resurrection.

We confess that we began life as sinners under Your just condemnation, but thank You that we now enjoy His righteousness, granted to us by Your great love and mercy. We know our frailty still, for we still fail, yet Your heart is ever toward us, and we thank You for Jesus Who intercedes for us. We may stumble but we will not fall completely, as He holds us up, and we persevere only through His strength.

We therefore are able to sing Your praises from hearts transformed by the work of the Holy Spirit.

We pray that everything we think and do and say would be honouring to You today and every day, in Jesus Mighty Name we ask, Amen!

[O Worship The King]
